married 22 Sep 1963 Vancouver, Clark, Washington, David "Dave" George Randle born August 5, 1941 Salem, Marion, Oregon died May 25, 2009 Redmond, Deschutes, Oregon married 2) Isabelle "Issy" Joann (Forrester) Wilson son of Warren Dexter Randle and Mary Frances Embrey

David George Randle died at his home in Redmond with his sons by his side on May 25, 2009, at the age of 67.

Mr. Randle was born Aug. 5, 1941, to Warren and Frances (Embrey) Randle in Salem. He attended Albany Union High School, where he played baseball and football and graduated in 1959.

He went on to attend Lewis and Clark College, where he ran track and played football and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in health and physical education in 1964.

While attending college, he met and married his first wife and mother of his sons, Ann Nielsen. In 1964, they moved to Madras, where he began his 30-year teaching career at Madras High School in 1964.

Returning to college, he obtained a master's degree in education in 1970 from Oregon State University.

At Madras High School, he coached football, cross country and track for the White Buffalos, and was named Coach of the Year in 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986 and 1992 by the Oregon High School Coaches Association.

Mr. Randle retired in 1994. He and Ann divorced and he moved to Redmond where he was remarried to Isabelle Wilson in 1998.

His special interests included flyfishing, hunting and refereeing basketball.

Survivors include, his sons, Geoffrey Randle and Patrick Randle (and wife Lisa); daughter-in-law Maria Randle; grandsons, Samuel and Thomas Randle, and Parker and Max Randle; stepchildren Ron (and spouse Kris) Wilson, Terri (Pat) Luedecke, Danelle (Brian) Bostick; step-grandchildren Nate, Jack, Lauren Wilson, Hannah, Samantha, Libby Luedecke, Will and Olivia Bostick; aunt Maxine Hughes; brother Gaylord (and wife Gloria) Randle; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Issy Randle.

A celebration of life was held May 31, at the Redmond Senior Center, 325 N.W. Dogwood Ave.

Memorial donations have been suggested to the Redmond Hospice. Arrangements were under the direction of Autumn -

Area coach always had a gag up his sleeve
Dave Randle Aug. 5, 1941 - May 25, 2009

Former colleague Margaret Sturza said there was "never a dull moment" when Dave Randle was around.

Randle, the longtime track and cross-country coach for the Madras High School White Buffaloes, died at his home in Redmond on Monday after a five-year fight with leukemia. He was 67.

Born in Salem, Randle played baseball and football at Albany Union High School. At Lewis & Clark College, he ran track and played football, graduating in 1964. That fall, he moved to Madras, where he spent the next 30 years coaching and teaching health and physical education at the high school and junior high levels.

Geoff Randle, the older of Randle's two sons, said his father was "the funniest man I'll probably ever know." A fan of Jerry Lewis films, Dave Randle's humor tended toward the slapstick, Geoff Randle said - when passing something to another person, he'd drop it just before handing it off, apologize at length, then do it again.

Friends and family said Dave Randle's dog barking was one of his signature gags.

"He'd get in the bushes, like just outside the entrance to a restaurant - he was really good at barking like a dog - and he would get into a dog and cat fight, banging on the bushes," Geoff Randle said. "He'd do the dog and the cat, and get all kinds of attention, raising hell."

Geoff Randle said his father instilled a love and respect for the outdoors in him and his brother Patrick, and that in his final hours, he told his dad he'll remember him every time he hooks a fish and every time he makes someone laugh.

Fred Bushong first met Dave Randle in 1972, when he came to Crook County High School to resurrect the school's cross-country team. Crook County and Madras were in the same league then, Bushong said, and Randle was always willing to help when Bushong was struggling to get his team into meets.

"He wasn't just out for Madras and his team to beat everybody else. It was for the kids, that was his thing. He wanted his kids to do as well as they could do, but he wanted everybody else to do well, too," Bushong said. "He hoped his team might come out on top, but with everybody performing their best."

Bushong said Dave Randle was an entertaining presence at track meets, walking up to other coaches and grabbing them in the calf while making dog noises, or quickly ducking in mid-conversation as though they were about to be struck by an errant javelin.

"He liked to do things like that keep you loose, and I think he did that with his kids, too, to keep them from getting too uptight or nervous," he said.

John Watts had Dave Randle as his teacher in junior high and as his high school coach in the early 1970s. Watts said that he was a demanding and supportive coach as well as a joker, and that he took a sincere and personal interest in the successes of his athletes.

"To see his athletes reach goals and succeed, it was like he enjoyed it as much as we did," Watts said. "He was a cheerleader, and seeing the joy our success brought him helped us do our best."

His colleague Sturza started at Madras High School in 1977, and coached and taught alongside Dave Randle until his retirement in 1994. She recalled his humor, but also his standing among the staff at the high school – for several years, he hosted an end-of-the-school-year float trip for the staff, guiding them down the Deschutes River from Maupin to Trout Creek.

"He was always a jokester and prankster, and made things really fun, but he was also an awesome coach," Sturza said. "Really knowledgeable, and the kids really respected him, and he got the most out of kids. But there was always a laugh a minute." - May 29, 2009 The Bulletin
